INTRODUCTION

Again we take pleasure in presenting to you the Mennonite Yearbook and Directory, with its articles on outstanding Mennonite activities during the past year, its helpful records for the historian, and its up-to-date statistics. It is a handbook of considerable value to the historian, the minister, the missionary, the Christian worker, and every layman in the Mennonite Church, not to mention its usefulness to those outside our constituency who want information concerning the work of the Mennonite Church.

A number of things concerning the 1942 Yearbook might merit special mention. The peace work of our church has taken on increased interest and activity because of the passage of the Conscription Law and the entry of the United States in the World War. In this issue of the Year Book you will find a record of the most important activities of our Peace Problems Committee in these momentous times. The work of the Mennonite Central Committee is also given larger place because of its management of the Civilian Service Camps in addition to relief work in a number of foreign countries. The Mennonite Civilian Service Camps now in operation are all listed, with personnel of workers.

Other changes that might be noted are the inclusion of the executive committees of all our Sunday-school conferences, and the new arrangement of the Wisler or Old Order Mennonites, in which the two groups are given separately in the conference table. In the Ministerial Directory the names of the ministers of all the Mennonite colonies in Paraguay are listed, instead of only one colony as heretofore. We are continually striving to make the Yearbook a more complete source of information for things pertaining to the different Mennonite groups, as well as of the Mennonite Church of which this is the particular publication.

The membership figures and other data and statistics have been thoroughly revised with the best information we could obtain, and yet we realize errors may have crept in, for which we ask your forbearance. It will be noted that both the membership of the church and the Sunday-school enrollment show an increase over the figures given last year. A number of new city missions have been added. We are glad for all these evidences of growth.

May the Lord help us all to be faithful stewards for Him during this year of our Lord 1942.

MENNONITE BOARD OF MISSIONS AND CHARITIES FOR THE YEAR 1941

By E. C. Bender, Treas.

In writing this summary we want to begin with some of the things which were mentioned in last year's write-up as being under way but not completed.

The Mexican work at La Junta, Colo., in charge of Bro. and Sister David Castillo, is now nicely under way. The Board has purchased a church building in La Junta. This was owned by the Baptist Missionary Society and was in a poor state of repair. Now it is transformed into a comfortable place of worship for our Mexican folks. Lester Hershey took charge of the Mexican work in Chicago as a single man but during the year he became married. In order to provide a home for Bro. and Sister Hershey as well as for the two groups of workers at the Home Mission, the Home Mission dwelling was converted into three apartments. This gives all our Chicago workers comfortable homes under the same roof. The Mexican work in Texas is steadily growing. The results in the three Mexican fields under the Board during the year are very encouraging.

Last year's summary called attention to the illness of Bro. Newton Weber, then superintendent of Fort Wayne Mission. During the year the Weber family has moved to Springs, Pa., where Bro. Weber's health has greatly improved while pursuing a different type of work. Bro. and Sister Allen Ebersole, Elkhart, Ind., were appointed to fill the vacancy at Fort Wayne.

The death of Bro. J. D. Mininger who had faithfully served at Kansas City, Kans., for many years, made the seeking for new workers for this field necessary. Sister Mininger has moved to Goshen, Ind., where she is making her home with her son, Paul. Bro. William Smith, who had been a co-worker as deacon with Bro. Mininger, was ordained minister and was acting superintendent of the Kansas City Mission, until his death on January 28, 1942.

A new Mission was opened at Denver, Colo., last summer. For several years there had been a conviction among some of our people that this should be done. The Missouri-Kansas and Iowa-Nebraska district conferences are in a special way helping in this work. Bro. and Sister P. A. Friesen, missionaries on furlough from India, are in charge. The Denver Mission is serving a special purpose, besides its regular mission work, by providing a home for our nurses in training at La Junta Hospital, who must affiliate in Denver hospitals for nine months to complete their training. The Board has purchased a building for a Mission Home. At present a hall is rented for the place of worship.

The Isolation Ward at the Kansas City Children's Home is completed, fully equipped, and in use now. Necessary funds were contributed to complete the second floor of the Ohio Old People's Home. This work is now well under way and will soon be completed. We are still short of the necessary funds to equip the rooms.

The present war situation is making the going to and from our foreign missions more and more difficult. This is especially true of our India missionaries. After several changes of sailing plans, the Friesens and Brennemans finally arrived home at the same time last spring. Friesens landed on the Atlantic coast and Brennemans on the Pacific. Bro. and Sister George Lapp were finally permitted to sail for India after many changes in sailing dates. Later S. Paul Miller also was permitted to go. The Lapps and Bro. Miller arrived safely in India and are now stationed. Upon his arrival, S. Paul Miller was married to Sister Vesta Nafziger, who was on the field several years. Plans were that Doctor and Sister G. D. Troyer should also go back to the India field but on account of their children we were not able to procure passports for them during this war period.

Bro. and Sister J. W. Shank are the only missionaries home on furlough from South America this year. Sister Shank will be remembered as the former Selena Gamber. Bro. and Sister Lauver, who had been serving at the Johnstown, Pa., Mission during an extended furlough period, again returned to their work in South America. Bro. and Sister Samuel Miller are newly appointed and are now in the South America field. Occasional contributions are being sent to Paraguay for missionary work among the Indians. This work is carried on by two brethren from the Russian Mennonite colony.

Our Relief work is carried on by the Mennonite Central Committee. Each month we have been sending to the M. C. C. $2,250 for European Relief and $500 for Relief among the Russian Mennonites in Paraguay. This makes a monthly total of $2,750.

The Selective Service law has brought to us a new responsibility—financing camps for our boys. During the experimental period before so many boys were called, the cost of maintaining these camps amounted to 50¢ per member according to the Yearbook membership report. The cost for the second period, September, 1941 to February, 1942, is estimated at $1.00 per member. Our people have been responding very nicely to this financial need. We are confident they will not fall down even though the load should become heavier on account of the larger number of inductees.

In spite of the new calls for heavy contributions, our regular missionary offerings did not shrink. We are sincerely hoping the missionary offerings will increase. Our great work is to bring the Gospel to a lost world. Our contributions for Relief and C. P. S. are only incidental. May we as Mennonites be found faithfully carrying out our Lord's great commission when He comes, no matter how trying world conditions may be.

MENNONITE CENTRAL COMMITTEE

By H. Ernest Bennett

Relief Work

Relief activities carried on by the Mennonite Central Committee were broadened during the past years to reach needy people in four foreign countries. The expansion of war areas and economic hardships caused by the war in other than combat areas have resulted in much suffering in many places. Food and clothing shortage has probably been one of the worst results of the present conflict, and this growing need around us in the world led the Mennonite Church to send relief and relief workers to countries where such conditions existed. Relief work has not been an easy task, but we are glad that there have been workers ready to go for service and also a church that has been willing to sacrifice to help in this cause. It is not the purpose of this report to give in any detailed form the many activities carried on in Mennonite relief work, but the few facts which follow will give a skeleton picture of what has happened and is now going on in Mennonite Relief activities.

England

Relief work in England was first opened by Bro. Amos Swartzendruber during his inspection trip to Europe after the present war started. Since Bro. Swartzendruber's contacts in England, Brethren Ted Claassen, John E. Coffman, and Peter Dyck have been sent there to carry on the work. Bro. Claassen, who was the first full-time English worker, returned to America in July, 1941. Activities being conducted in England are various and reach the needy in many places. The two main points from which work is carried on are London and Birmingham, with Bro. Coffman stationed in London and Bro. Dyck in Birmingham. At present the relief work is centered in four major projects.

1. Near London a large home is being operated as a refuge for small boys and girls from the city who have been forced to leave their homes due to bombing or lack of food. This home has been caring for more than forty children regularly during the past year.

2. From a clothing depot large quantities of clothing have been distributed among the unfortunate in many sections of London and in other parts of England. Clothing for this depot is supplied by American Mennonites, and during the past year the Mennonite Central Committee sent to England clothing valued at $38,975.40.

3. Near Birmingham a home for old people is now in operation. The purpose of this home is to take from the cities old people whose homes have been bombed, and to give them a home and sufficient food out in the country away from air raids.

4. Another part of Mennonite relief in Birmingham is the operating of a Mobile Canteen which goes about the city giving out warm food and drinks, such as milk and tea, during and after air raids. To many a cold and hungry refugee this canteen has proved a real help.

Other activities of the English work cannot be mentioned in detail, but such things as personal assistance to refugees, and distributing Bibles among war prisoners is a part of the work. During the past year $26,641.13 in funds were sent to England by the Mennonite Central Committee to carry on the above program. It has been approved by the M. C. C. to continue a relief program of $3,000 monthly in England.

France

From a small beginning in April, 1942, French relief activities by the Mennonite churches have grown to a large and varied program. During the past year four workers have returned from the field, and four new ones have been sent out. The returning workers in their order were Edna Ramseyer, Ernest Bennett, Henry W. Wiens, and Jesse Hoover. The four workers who have been sent out and are still on the field are J. N. Byler (Director), Henry Buller, Lois Gunden, and Helen Penner. Brethren Byler and Buller are located at Lyon, France, where an extensive program is carried on, and from which point the whole French work is directed. Sisters Penner and Gunden are directing convalescent homes for children in southern France near the Spanish frontier. The present relief program in France is centered in the following projects:

1. Several convalescent homes in which are placed sick and starving children from the concentration camps in southern France. The purpose of these homes is to take care of the children until they regain their health and can be returned to the camp or sent to some place where they will be more permanently taken care of. This work reaches probably the most needy group of refugees in France, and has been assisting more than 150 children continually.

2. In the city of Lyon a large program of food and milk distribution is being carried on. This work has been made possible by the help of the officials of the city who have made available the school canteens for places of distribution. The children assisted are those from French homes who have been left fatherless and who have no means of getting sufficient or proper food. During the past winter over 1,300 children were helped daily in the project.

3. Food distribution in four small towns near the Spanish border forms the third main part of our French relief program. Into these towns hundreds of refugees went to seek shelter during the war, and when food shortage came, they were left destitute. To assist these people the Mennonite workers are operating food distribution centers and a dining hall. Children who either have no parents or whose parents have no means of supplying food for them, come daily to the dining hall where they are served one full meal a day. Throughout these villages, the distribution centers give out food packages twice monthly to hundreds of families who have no other food supply.

With these three projects as a base our workers are continuing to branch out their work to help many more. In France, the people most desperately in need are the thousands of refugees in concentration camps. It is planned to broaden our work in this field if world conditions do not necessitate a limiting or closing of our work in France. In all, over $39,000 was sent to France during the past year, plus one large shipment of clothing. Our French program will continue to operate with a monthly sending of at least $3,000.

Poland

Another country to which the Mennonite Church has been sending help is Poland. Unfortunately it has been impossible to carry on the extensive program there that has been possible in both France and England. This is due mostly to lack of supplies, and some restrictions in operation. Bro. M. C. Lehman has represented the Mennonite Central Committee in this field from its beginning and at present is still in Germany. In light of America's entrance into the war, this work cannot continue. Bro. Lehman is expected to be given passage home along with the American embassy officials and newspapermen.

During the past year, Bro. Lehman conducted the following projects:

1. Large shipments of food and medicine were sent into Warsaw, Poland, to be distributed among the children of that city. The distribution of this food was made possible through the assistance of local relief groups.

2. A program of sending food packages from Berlin to Poland to needy families was carried on, and many families assisted. Through this program some Mennonite homes, directly affected by the war, were given help.

Paraguay

The most recent, and fourth field from which a call of help has come, and to which relief has been sent, is the Mennonite colony in Paraguay. Due to economic difficulties caused by the war, many of the Mennonite brethren in Paraguay have been in need of help, and when Bro. Orie Miller made a trip to Paraguay this past summer, arrangements were made to send both workers and funds there. One of the most pressing needs was medical service. This need was met by sending Dr. John Schmidt of Newton, Kansas, to Paraguay to assist in the hospital work. Dr. Schmidt is the only doctor in the colony at the present time. To assist Dr. Schmidt and to carry on other relief, the M. C. C. sent a second worker, Bro. Vernon Schmidt, who has just recently arrived in Paraguay. One of Vernon Schmidt's first duties will be to assist in building a hospital in the Primavera Colony where the Hutterian Brethren from England settled.

Here is a group of Spanish refugee children newly arrived from the French occupied zone, with Jesse Hoover

The latest project in the Paraguay relief work was the sending of five tons of clothing from the Ephrata, Pa., depot to Paraguay which will be distributed by Vernon Schmidt among the needy Mennonite homes. The budget set aside for this work is $1000 monthly.

One large part of the whole relief program, with which many in America have come into closer contact, is the packing and sending of relief clothing. Most of this work during the past year has been centered around the clothing depot at Ephrata, Pa. From its beginning this depot has been in charge of Sister Lydia Lehman, who has been doing her share of relief work at this end while Bro. Lehman has been working in Poland. During the past year over twenty-five tons of clothing have been baled, valued at $50,091.77. Besides this, large shipments of clothing were packed and sent by the Mennonite churches in Canada. The clothing depot at Ephrata is one proof of the large amount of work contributed to relief by the women's sewing circles of the Mennonite Church.

It will probably be of most value to close this report with a summary of the year's work, and a review of what is now going on. Since last December nine new workers have gone to foreign fields for relief service. One of these and three who were on the field before have returned home. At present there are two workers in England, four in France, one in Germany, and two in Paraguay. There are also two new workers under appointment to go to England. During the past year $100,254.80 was contributed for relief work, of which $95,101.73 has been expended. During the same period $48,066.95 worth of clothing was contributed, of which $42,826.40 has been sent to foreign fields for relief. The total budget for relief at present is $10,000 monthly.

Present conditions make it difficult to determine what lies ahead in relief work. Unquestionably needs will continue to grow and will, no doubt, spread to other countries of the world. This short report of relief work indicates that the Mennonite churches have already seen the need and have answered the call of the hungry in other parts of the world. What challenges shall face our church in the future cannot be estimated, but we can be sure, judging from past responses, that when the call comes we will answer!

PEACE, PERFECT PEACE

Peace, O blessed Benediction!

Jesus' legacy of love;

Peace, blest token of affection,

Perfect peace from Christ above.

Peace, not as a vain world giveth,

Jesus died to make it thine;

Peace because on high He liveth,

Peace eternal and Divine.

Peace, amidst life's cares and worry,

Tuning lips to praise and song;

Peace amidst life's stress and hurry,

Peace, when paths are rough and long.

Peace, the love gift of the Giver,

Keeping hearts in holy calm;

Peace which floweth like a river,

Peace, when stormy winds alarm.

Peace, the holy breath of Jesus,

Tranquil in the battle hour;

Peace when enemies surround us,

Peace, when darts around us shower.

Peace, when clouds of darkness thicken,

When the storm tempts to despair;

Peace which makes the heart-throb quicken,

To the endless peace up there.

—A. Gardner.

THE DENVER MENNONITE MISSION

By P. A. Friesen, Superintendent

The Denver Mennonite Mission was officially opened July 1, 1941. However, the real beginning dates back to the year 1938. It was at this time that a few individuals became very much interested in the city of Denver. First mention of the need was made in prayer meeting and in a Sunday-school conference. Soon more people became interested and more praying was done and finally the matter was placed before the district conference. As time went on, it was thought best to approach the General Mission Board on the subject. The result was that at the Mission Board Meeting last spring, the General Mission Board decided to open a mission in Denver and in that same meeting appointed Sister Friesen and myself as workers for the Denver Mission.

The first four months we lived in rented quarters and held our services in the Seventh Day Adventist old church building, but this was not very satisfactory. So the Mission Board purchased a Mission Home on 1218 Kalamanth Street, and for the services the Denver congregation has rented a Mission Hall on 1456 Lipan. This hall is only four blocks from the Mission Home. The local people have pledged themselves for the rent and upkeep of the Mission Hall. Our attendance now runs from thirty to fifty.

On December 21 we had our first communion service here in Denver. The number that participated in the communion was thirty-six. Three members could not be present on account of sickness and for other reasons. In the evening the young people gave a fine Christmas program and at the close of the program, we took up an offering which amounted to $62. This money is to be put in the Denver Mennonite Church Building Fund. Our Mission Hall will soon be too small. We are badly in need of a church building. Two families that belong to the Brethren Church are also worshipping with us, and two non-Mennonite families have become interested in our church. We are looking for great blessings in the new year and we ask an interest in your prayers.

ACTIVITIES OF EASTERN MENNONITE BOARD OF MISSIONS AND CHARITIES IN 1941

By Henry F. Garber, President

The year now past has brought tremendous changes in many ways in the nation and in the world, and our missionary activities are influenced and colored by these events.

In a general way health among our missionaries at home and abroad has been good. The first death for many years among our workers must be recorded this year. Anna Winters, one of our faithful workers for many years at Lancaster Vine Street Mission, fell asleep last summer.

The Colored work in Philadelphia has been carried on for some years under a considerable handicap as to location and building. During the year, surveys have been made for a suitable location. There is a large Colored population moving northward in the city. To meet this moving population of Colored people a property was finally bought at the corner of Gratz and 1814 Diamond streets. At this writing alterations are being planned so that a work can be opened here soon. It is expected that a pastor-superintendent will be located there by the time this is read.

At the Welsh Mt. Samaritan Home an addition was needed and built during the year at an approximate cost of $15,000. This addition takes care of a much crowded condition there.

General receipts for the year are possibly at an all-time high figure. The year is not quite over but receipts likely will reach $89,000. A good deal of this increase was due to World War II. Our Board received and disbursed for European War Sufferers' Relief $15,000. Civilian Public Service Camps received another $15,000. General missionary offerings are $2,000 higher than 1940. General Fund contributions are $3,000 higher than 1940 amounting to $19,000. Altogether there is an increase of giving along with the general improvement in business.

As has been the practice for many years a gathering of new and used clothing was made at Mellinger's Church this fall. A large amount was again received. This will be distributed by the Mennonite Central Committee in war-stricken countries.

On the African field there are now nineteen adult missionaries. Five are home on furlough. George and Dorothy Smoker are new missionaries under appointment. They will sail with Elma Hershberger as soon as arrangements can be completed. The uncertainty of the times makes the date indefinite. There are fourteen missionaries' children on the field all less than five years of age. Health among the children is reported good. These growing children force upon the Mission and the home board the problem of providing school privileges for these children in a few years.

The native church is growing and presents a number of challenges to the home church, and the problems of the field call for much wisdom on the part of the missionaries and should call us to intercessory prayer on their behalf.

During the year the first missionary workers' conference was held. It was a well-attended meeting and a much appreciated one. The program was worked out by the workers, and it is planned to call another such meeting next year.

By the grace of God the Church was enabled during the year to press on in the various mission fields and to reap some of the precious sheaves. The brotherhood has responded cheerfully in a financial way and we seek the prayers and material help of the Church for the troublous days ahead, if the Lord tarries.

Mt. Joy, Pa.

"Ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth."

THE MENNONITE BOARD OF EDUCATION

By D. A. Yoder, President

The Mennonite Board of Education is the one agency of the Mennonite Church which is particularly interested in the cause of Christian higher education. Since the Church was interested in providing facilities for this purpose, a Board of Directors was chosen, known as the Mennonite Board of Education. This Board is composed of thirty-six members elected as follows: four members elected by Mennonite General Conference; four members-at-large; four ex-officio members (the presidents and business managers of the two schools); four members elected by the Alumni Associations; and twenty members elected by the several Mennonite conferences. The present officers of the Board are: President, D. A. Yoder; Vice President, J. B. Smith; Secretary, C. F. Yake; Treasurer, H. R. Schertz; fifth member, Oscar Burkholder; Financial Agent, O. O. Miller; and Endowment Custodian, E. J. Yoder. The Board members are elected for a term of four years and so arranged that there will be the least possible change in the personnel of the Board each year. Officers of the Board are elected for two years, three elected in one meeting and the other four in the next. The Annual Board meeting is held sometime between the dates of Feb. 1 and April 1.

The Executive Committee of the Board meets at the time of the regular Board meeting, at the close of the school year, and soon after the opening of the schools, or at such other time as the president of the Board may call. Such questions as the presidents of the schools may present, the budgets and other financial problems, housing facilities, and such like, are discussed at these meetings. The aim of the Board is to keep in close touch with the schools and their problems and to help in directing them in the right channels. The Executive Committee solicits the co-operation and help of all the members of the Church in making our educational institutions of more usefulness to the Church.

During the past year a number of high marks have been reached in our educational program. For a number of years the faculty, students, alumni, and parents have been interested in having Goshen College an accredited institution, considering this a distinct advantage. During the past year Goshen College has been accredited by the North Central Association, the most influential accrediting agency in the Middle West. This is especially gratifying since we are attempting to operate our schools in accordance with the standards and principles of the Mennonite Church, making them distinctly church schools.

There are a number of distinct advantages which accreditation brings. It gives the institution public recognition. The accrediting agency sets standards for improvements along scholastic lines and also in equipment. It makes it possible for students to transfer to other institutions of learning and have their credits accepted without discount or difficulty. Graduating from accredited colleges helps the graduates in securing positions and especially is this true in the field of teaching.

For a number of years our colleges have been granted annual accreditation to grant licenses in the teaching profession, which required an annual inspection by the state board. This year accreditation remains continuous for Goshen College and authorization has been given to grant licenses to teachers for the four-year elementary teacher training course and also in the following fields for high schools: English, mathematics, French, Latin, music, German, speech, two options in commerce, three options in social studies, four options in sciences, and regular and special home economics.

As a Board we need to remember that to obtain accreditation is one thing, and to keep it is another, and that it requires the united effort of all concerned to make this possible.

During the past year additions have been made by the way of new equipment, new buildings, and campus improvement. Goshen College has added an annex to Coffman Hall which is to serve as a home for one of the members of the faculty. He is to have a part in the direction of student life in this dormitory.

Hesston has acquired the Coopridger property, located near the campus, has done some needed remodeling, and is using it as a dormitory for men. These projects were made possible through the co-operation of the Mennonite Finance Corporation. The cost of these projects is to be included over a period of years in the budgets of the schools. Hesston College has also added an Industrial Arts building to its campus equipment. This cost was met by special subscription for this particular purpose.

Another feature of this year's work is the sending out of an occasional letter to all Board members informing them about the activities of the Executive Committee between sessions of the Board. The schools are also sending out to all Board members copies of their publications.

The Church has definitely committed herself to an educational program. This is recognized by the fact that General Conference and a large number of district conferences have on their minutes items recognizing the need of providing schools for our youth that they might obtain higher education under Christian influences. She has also committed herself in the fact that the Board is composed largely of members appointed by General Conference and the several district conferences.

Since this is true, it is the part of every member to take his place in the work of the Board. Our work is more than just to look on, but we can help in prayer, in constructive criticism, and in faithful attendance to the duties enjoined upon us by the fact of our election as a member of the Board. One of the tasks so much neglected is the raising of the funds needed for the operation of church schools. Too often this task is left to a special agent when it should be the task of every Board member, and he should not be satisfied until it is met proportionately as we meet the raising of funds for all the other agencies of the Church.

The Mennonite Board of Education is definitely committed to a program of education conducted along ideals fostered by the Mennonite Church. We try to afford opportunity for education under Christian influences to the youth of the Mennonite Church and to others who may desire to attend. We welcome them. We solicit the prayers of the entire Church that we may be faithful in the task committed unto us.

Elkhart, Ind.

EASTERN MENNONITE SCHOOL

Chester K. Lehman, Dean and Registrar

1941-1942 will go down in history as years of a building program at Eastern Mennonite School. It was begun in the summer of 1940 when a 30' by 42' annex at the cost of $3000 was added to the Home Economics building. This annex affords two rooms for art and recitation, respectively. The Industrial Arts building is the first new building to be completed. It is a two-story brick structure 40' by 56' facing east on Smith Avenue with separate rooms on first floor for farm shop, ceramics, aquarium, storage, furnace, photography, finishing and cloak room; and on the second, for drawing and woodwork. The general science and agriculture laboratory is also located in this building. At this writing the north annex of the administration building is nearing completion. This structure 50' by 70' balances the south annex and furnishes the finished appearance which has been so much desired since the latter was built.

The partition between the dining hall and the biological laboratory is being removed so that the entire basement of the south annex will be used for dining hall. With additional eastern and southern window space the enlarged hall promises to be most delightful and attractive. The biological laboratory is being moved to the corresponding area of the new annex basement, and the chemical laboratory to the north-west portion. Both will have more commodious quarters. The first floor will be used for library and reading room. Temporarily the west portion of it will afford study room space for day students. Forty-four students will be accommodated in the new dormitories of the second and third floors, together with infirmary capacity for eight beds.

The library promises to be most desirable in every respect. A mezzanine 18' deep extends the full length of the south portion of the library room and will be used for offices, book stacks, and historical library room. Ideal lighting is provided by unobstructed windows on the east, north, and west sides of the room. Great care has been used in planning the room so that it will serve as an efficient library.

Two new Kewanee furnaces with stokers replace the three old ones and are supplying ample heat for the entire administration building.

Excavation for the basement of the new auditorium 72' by 110' in size has been done. Much of the steel, bricks, and lumber is already on the grounds. The work of building will begin as soon as men can be released from the north annex. The basement of the auditorium will be arranged for chapel space for regular chapel exercises and smaller public meetings together with a music room, a couple classrooms, cloak rooms, and lavatories. The main auditorium will accommodate one thousand people and the gallery four hundred.

The enrollment is the largest in the school's history. By departments it stands as follows:

High school Bible	32
College and Junior College Bible	34
Junior College and Normal	39
High School	222

This enrollment shows a great increase in all years of the high school together with moderate growth of the Bible School and Junior College.

This increase of enrollment taxes the faculty to the very limit. In addition to the new head of the English department in the person of Bro. Hubert Pellman, the two part-time faculty members are engaged in full-time service and a part-time assistant is employed in the chemical laboratory. Bro. Pellman, graduate of Eastern Mennonite School, secured the bachelor's degree at Susquehanna University and the master's degree at Bucknell. With this training he is well qualified for his chosen field in English. Bro. J. R. Mumaw who did splendid work in this field is now devoting his entire teaching time to the department of Christian Education and Practical Theology.

Among the special features of the school program this year is a series of weekly Vesper Chats centering in home building. In addition to regular faculty members, speakers from the community and from a distance are bringing vital messages on courtship, marriage, and the home.

Student personnel work is being given special study by a faculty committee with the view of rendering more efficient personal attention to each student. A task long delayed of defining duties of officers of the faculty and of standing committees, etc., is about completed. Other studies are being carried on with the view of safeguarding the school against dangerous trends and of building up a better and more effective school program.

With all the progress that might be noted, it is needful to give God proper glory and praise for the blessings bestowed upon the institution. In numerous instances in the building program especially we have noted what can be explained in no other way than that the hand of the Lord was in the work. When we note that for a number of years a heavy debt was resting on the institution and that this was lately paid and funds made available for such an extensive building program, we turn with grateful hearts to God the Giver of good gifts to man.

These blessings bring increased responsibilities and challenge board and faculty to greater sacrifice, increased loyalty to Christ and the Church, and more strenuous effort to continue to conduct the school in a way that is pleasing to Him. Harrisonburg, Va.

OUR PUBLISHING WORK

By A. J. Metzler, General Manager of Mennonite Publishing House

The Mennonite Publication Board and its agent, the Mennonite Publishing House, at Scottdale, Pa., continue to enjoy the growing support and co-operation of all parts of the Mennonite Church at home and abroad. It is the first general church board to have representatives appointed by and from each conference. This co-operation is a genuine challenge to the Board and House to serve more effectively their constituency. Furthermore, this working together in itself is a real blessing in unifying and strengthening every part of our church.

It is unnecessary to call our readers' attention to the present national and international situation with its consequent result on commercial, industrial, and social conditions. The physical part of our publishing interests is directly affected by this to some extent. The question of availability of material, prices, transportation, and similar problems indeed present great uncertainties. In most lines prices are on a steady increase. Publishers have not been exempt from the effects of this. However, it is our earnest desire to maintain prewar rates on subscriptions and books as long as possible. The prompt payment of all obligations and increased purchases by our constituency will aid us to this end.

It is gratifying to see an increased production of books by Mennonite authors. The following are some published during the past year:

Fifty Years in the Mennonite Church
—Daniel Kauffman.

117 Object Lessons—S. G. Shetler and Sanford Shetler.

Talks With Our Young People—John W. Weaver and Margaret Horst.

Worship in the Home—John R. Mumaw.

Growing into Life and Love—John R. Mumaw.

Finding My Place in Christian Service—John R. Mumaw.

Finding a Life Vocation—John R. Mumaw.

Christian Assurance—John R. Mumaw.

Love in Courtship—John R. Mumaw.

Youth Building Christian Homes—John R. Mumaw.

The following are some additional books by Mennonite authors now being prepared and will be ready for release shortly:

Mennonite History, Vol. I, Mennonites in Europe—John Horsch.

True Stories From Life—Oscar Burkholder.

The Devotional Side of Life—Daniel Kauffman.

Six Rooms With a View—C. F. Derstine.

Christ, the Redeemer and Judge—John C. Wenger.

God and War—J. Irvin Lehman.

Bible Geography—John Leatherman.

Principles and Methods of Teaching—Clayton L. Keener.

Others are being planned for future publication.

Book sales continue to increase. The three divisions of our sales are mail order, bookstores, and field representatives. The mail order method is our oldest and continues to be the largest outlet. The five retail stores are located as follows: Scottsdale, New Holland, Lancaster, Souderton, and Kitchener, Ont. Our field representatives are a newer type of sales service but seem to be appreciated greatly. This service enables many folks to make a personal selection of the books desired. The picture accompanying this article illustrates a typical visit by one of our representatives.

A site was purchased and a new building erected for our Golden Rule Bookstore at Kitchener. The building is two-story, 32x70 feet, with two storerooms on the first floor and four apartments on the second. The larger of the two storerooms is used for the bookstore. This gives our bookstore both more commodious quarters and a better location nearer the center of the business district. The building brings appropriate returns to the Board.

The total circulation of our regular publications is enjoying a splendid growth. The following is the circulation of our regular weekly and monthly publications as of January 1, 1942:

- Gospel Herald—13,968
- Christian Monitor—6,745
- Youth's Christian Companion—20,505
- Words of Cheer—15,944
- Beams of Light—11,335
- The Way—70,867

The total circulation of our Sunday-school quarterlies including picture cards and rolls is now nearly 150,000 each quarter.

While from a material standpoint the future is filled with uncertainties, yet in view of the Lord's past blessings and His promises for the future, we go forth in faith in Him and His Church, believing the publishing interests of the church have the greatest opportunities and challenge for service right now. There was never a time in the history of the Mennonite Church when the need for good literature was as imperative as now. Every wide-awake parent and pastor is keenly conscious of this need. May every one of us dedicate ourselves anew, under God, to the great task of supplying this need for the home and church of today and tomorrow until He comes.

Scottdale, Pa.

"God says you are to watch as well as pray. Suppose you pray that God would give you the victory over some besetting sin, and that you neglect to watch against that sin, and to cut off every temptation to its indulgence, as far as you can, you cannot expect God to answer your prayer. God will do nothing for us that we can do for ourselves."

PEACE PROBLEMS COMMITTEE IN ACTION

By C. L. Graber, Treasurer

The year 1941 was an unprecedented year in the history of the Church. This is the first time the United States has had peacetime conscription for military training. It has been the major task of the committee to work out the problems arising out of this condition.

Since the Canadian Conscription Law is somewhat different from the United States law, the Canadian section of the committee has dealt chiefly with the Canadian aspects of the problem and the United States section with the United States aspects of it. During the whole year Canada was at war with the Axis countries while the United States was not formally at war. This made the problems different. However, the attitude of the Church in the two countries is the same. While the Canadian government granted "indefinite postponement" to draftees holding conscientious scruples against training for either combatant or noncombatant service, nevertheless, the historic peace churches worked out with their government officials a plan whereby those holding such a view could serve the country by giving a term of service for a like period of time in building of roads and related projects as an alternative to training in an army camp. The men serve at a reduced pay of 50 cents per day, while the government furnishes transportation, housing, food, medical care and supervision. The churches are permitted at their own expense to provide a religious supervisor who has charge of planning the leisure time of the boys while in camp. So far this has been a satisfactory way of handling their situation.

In the United States the Peace Problems Committee has turned the Civilian Public Service task over to the Mennonite Central Committee which is a corporation representing all the Mennonite branches as well as the Brethren in Christ Church. They have opened camps as follows: Grottoes, Virginia; Colorado Springs, Colorado; Bluffton, Indiana; Denison, Iowa; Sideling Hill, Pa.; Henry, Illinois. In addition to these there are two camps that are operated jointly with the Brethren Service Committee at Marietta, Ohio and Cascade Locks, Oregon.

The administrative set-up in these camps is as follows: Director, Educational Director, Matron, Dietitian, Business Manager. The matron and dietitian are women, while the business manager usually is one of the draftees who has had some experience to qualify him for the task. The routine camp work is done by the boys themselves. The director is responsible for the camp. In practically all cases he is an ordained minister, and besides organizing and operating the camp, he is also the pastor and plans the religious activity of the camp. The educational director is in charge of the educational and recreational program for the boys. He has a difficult task because the training level of the camp boys varies so much. Some have only an eighth grade education while others have college degrees. The matron acts as Mother to the boys looking after general order and cleanliness as well as supervising the infirmary. The dietitian plans and serves all the meals. She has to keep an accurate detailed cost account, and operate on a food budget of not more than 42 cents per day per man. The business manager is in direct contact with the treasurer of the Mennonite Central Committee at Akron, Pa. He does all the buying for the camp, and keeps the records of all monies received and expended.

The Civilian Public Service work is supported by the church. The budget for the six months to end about March 1, 1942, calls for an offering of $1.00 per church member. What it will be in the future no one can tell. Of course, if the number of boys in camp is increased this budget will have to be raised in proportion. It has become clear during the year that the government will not co-operate with the churches in bearing the expense. They are willing, of course, to take the camps over but in that case the churches could not control the discipline and the religious activity.

So far, two chief types of work have been approved by Selective Service. These are soil conservation work and forestry work. The first has to do with such things as building of retaining walls across gullies, terrace building on sloping hillsides to prevent erosion, and planting of grass and bushes. In the forestry work there is the planting and cultivating of nursery stock for replanting after proper size has been attained and the care and protection of wild life. No doubt other types of work will be approved and undertaken as time goes on.

On October 24, 1941, the Peace Problems Committee called a meeting at the Mennonite Home Mission in Chicago to which were invited responsible leaders of the Church from East, West, North and South. The whole problem of Civilian Public Service was placed before these brethren and the implications of the whole set-up were faced. While some weaknesses in the program were recognized, yet the body was unanimous in support of the program as it is being carried on and a strong sentiment was expressed in favor of keeping the camps under church direction by making every effort to raise sufficient funds to make this possible.

During the year difficulties arose in connection with the classification of registrants under certain Local Draft Boards. The regional counsellors were retained; namely, Amos Horst, Akron, Pa., for region east of Ohio; D. A. Yoder, Elkhart, Indiana, for the region from Ohio to the Mississippi River; and H. A. Diener for the region west of the Mississippi. The committee co-operated directly with these brethren and other local ministers where specific difficult problems arose. The State Directors of Selective Service were contacted in most states where our people are numerous and with good result. In practically every case all deserving men are given proper classification; not always without some difficulty of hearing and appeal, but finally in every case so far as we know.

During the year the Peace page in the Gospel Herald once each month was continued under the pen of Bro. Edward Yoder of Scottdale, Pa. The committee published numerous circulars and letters on the current registration and classification problems. These were sent to all our pastors and bishops in order to keep everyone informed and to enable us to take a united stand. More of this will be needed and will be cared for as becomes necessary.

Just as the year draws to a close new and enormous problems arise. War has been declared on Japan, Germany, and Italy. The possessions of the United States have been attacked with loss of life and property. Public sentiment has changed. A new law asking for the registration of all men between the ages of 18 and 65 is before Congress. The law makes all men between 21 and 45 liable for national service. What this will mean to non-resistant people, no one can now foresee. As in the past, the Peace Problems Committee is studying the new situation and with the help of the church leaders and under Divine guidance will endeavor to propose a course of action when the proper time comes to preserve our historic testimony of peace according to the Scripture and yet to be obedient citizens of the state as much as possible. For the consideration of a friendly government we are most grateful and it is our deep desire to live so as to merit this continued consideration. May God grant that this will be so.

At the meeting of the General Conference in August, 1941, the membership of the Peace Committee was enlarged to include six brethren in the United States and four in Canada. There will be more work to do and more counsel needed. This enlarged committee therefore is necessary and will find much work to do.

A RESUME OF WORK

Of the Mennonite Commission For Christian Education and Young People's Work

By J. R. Mumaw, Field Secretary

This organization was first set up in 1937 at the meeting of General Conference at Turner, Oregon, when a tentative constitution was adopted. General Conference at Wellman, Ia., in 1941, adopted a revised constitution under which the Commission now operates. Several changes have been made which are believed to have strengthened and safeguarded its organization.

The following paragraphs are intended to give a brief survey of activities promoted by the Commission in various areas of interest with which it was concerned during 1941.

The Sunday School

In consultation with the Publishing Committee and the Publication Board of the Mennonite Church consideration has been given to the advisability of producing our own lessons for Mennonite Sunday schools. The Commission arranged for the preparation of an outline of Bible lessons for the nursery and kindergarten departments and has submitted the outline with sample lessons to the Publishing Committee. After receiving their approval of the general plan, necessary steps have been taken for the production of lessons for these particular age groups.

Some time has been devoted to the study of organization of the Sunday school as it relates itself to the other teaching agencies which have come to be used within the Church. The study came simultaneously with the appointment of study committees of various district conferences. The Commission has not arrived at any definite plan of organization, but it is continuing its research in this field and hopes to be in a position to give guidance to those who may desire help along this line.

Young People's Bible Meetings

Some efforts have been made to determine more accurately the needs of the Young People's Bible Meeting in the light of an apparent lapse of interest in this particular organization of the Church. Accordingly the Commission has sent out report blanks. The returns, although few, indicate the need of better leadership. A Topics Committee has kept in mind the particular interests of youth especially in those problems related to living the Christian faith. It is hoped that there will be a better response from sending out the annual report blank for the year 1941.

Junior Bible Meetings

During the past years numerous requests have been made for a more adequate outline of topics for juniors. In response to these requests the Commission has arranged for the study of Junior Bible Meetings. Plans are being made for the production of an outline of topics and programs that will meet the needs of this age group.

Summer Bible Schools

During the year 1941 the number of Summer Bible Schools sponsored by Mennonite congregations and groups has increased. The production and distribution of a promotional booklet on Summer Bible School work should produce greater interest in this type of teaching activity.

Definite steps have been taken to arrange for the revision of Summer Bible School Manuals which have been used quite successfully in the past years.

Week-day Bible Schools

It is gratifying to note that the Week-day Bible School is gaining a place of permanent recognition in the Mennonite Church. The manuals prepared by a committee appointed by the Lancaster Conference are being used with gratifying results.

Teacher Training

During the past year definite assignments have been made to persons for the preparation of additional textbooks to be used in training courses sponsored by the Commission. A definite conviction that the present outline of courses is limited to the interests of only a few in the congregation has led to the consideration of enlarging its scope. Accordingly a revision of the teacher training course has been undertaken. It is intended that the revised course shall include offerings that will interest every member of the local congregation. It is hoped that the final outline of such a Christian workers' course will make a new and stronger appeal to our congregations.

Missionary Education

The Commission continues to function conjointly with the Mennonite Board of Missions and Charities in the production of bulletins encouraging the observance of Missionary Day and the promotion of missionary investments among juniors. The promotion of Youth Missionary Projects has resulted in an increased number of groups participating in projects designed to raise funds for missionary purposes.

Young People

During the past year the Commission has sponsored the preparation of a series of booklets under the general title, "Our Youth For Christ." The subjects treated in these booklets are: "Christian Assurance"; "Finding a Life Vocation"; "Finding My Place in Christian Service"; "Growing into Life and Love"; "Love in Courtship"; and, "Youth Building Christian Homes." It is hoped that the wide circulation which these booklets have already enjoyed will help to meet some of the issues related to the life of youth. Throughout the year a large number of young people's questionnaires have been administered in the interests of ascertaining the actual status of young people in the Mennonite Church. The results of this questionnaire are published in the Commission Handbook.

Young People's Institutes continue to serve our youth in encouraging the development of spiritual life among youth and in giving definite guidance to their lives. The Commission also encourages the sponsoring of youth conferences by local congregations.

The Home

With the publication of "Worship in the Home," the Commission took another formal step toward the encouragement of family worship in the home. There has been a large distribution of this booklet throughout the Church and it continues to serve a place in the encouragement of family altars.

At the meeting of General Conference held in Iowa, formal action was taken in assigning the study of home relations and the promotion of Christian teaching in the home to the Commission. Accordingly the Commission has made provision for the study and careful outlining of some method of procedure that will meet the present needs of revitalizing the home influence for Christ and the Church.

Church and Sunday-school Libraries

In the 1941 Commission Handbook appears a list of books which provides Sunday-school librarians and library committees with suggestions for the purchasing of Christian literature for their church and Sunday school. This continues to be featured in the 1942 Commission Handbook with new listings. The Commission, in co-operation with the Publishing House, is interested in watching for new publications which will be usable among our constituency.

Field Workers' Conference

A Field Workers' Conference sponsored by the Commission was held in May of last year at Hesston, Kansas. The success of this meeting has led the Commission to plan for another such meeting in hopes that it will be a regular feature among our church activities.

BENEFITS TO OUR YOUNG MEN THROUGH CIVILIAN PUBLIC SERVICE

By John H. Mosemann, Camp
Director at Grottoes, Va.

Our young men have assumed an important role in our church life. Our church's testimony (as far as nonresistance is concerned) has been taken away from the ministry and is now in the power of young men who are called to give a service alternate to military training. No matter what our testimony is from the pulpit, the life witness of young men in camps is the mould in which much of our present-day testimony is cast. Not what we are declaring today, but the preaching of the past generation is on exhibition and trial today. Perhaps no better test could be applied to our teaching ministry than that which the present cross section of men in camp reveals. But this fact is one of the outstanding benefits of our present camp program.

But the young men in camp are not only the occasion of benefit to the Church; they, too, realize certain helpful experiences all of which serve to enrich the life which is open to such influences.

Our youth today who are of draft age are learning something of sacrifice. Homes, jobs, associations, liberties are sacrificed in this camp service. It is a financial sacrifice, a social sacrifice, but we attempt to prevent it from being a spiritual sacrifice. But even these sacrifices are eclipsed by those undertaken by the soldier boys. They are eclipsed by the sacrifices embraced by our fathers. And, shall we exempt our unworthy selves from any severe cost in maintaining our Spirit-born convictions?

Another blessing of camp life is the fellowship which is possible. There are few things so helpful as fellowship. And, in wrong circumstances, there are few things so misleading. But in our circle, young men are brought into closer contact with each other than would normally be possible in their own communities. They work together, eat together, live together, worship together. They cannot get away from each other. Nor would they want to! Associations formed in this experience have already proved of inestimable value to many, and we anticipate many others are due a good share of this distinct benefit.

Another element in the blessing which we know is that of service. Our country has long provided for our enjoyment of religious privilege. It is under no obligation to do so. Our constitution provides for this liberty—that is true. But constitutions change and are amended. Intolerance frequently supplants good judgment, and what one generation enjoys may be denied the next. But having enjoyed religious liberty and protection in our worship, we are now faced with the opportunity of rendering a free service to our country in a token of gratitude for what we have been able to enjoy freely. Let our service be a cheerful, ungrudging one!

To be sent to a camp also should serve to have young men rethink their whole spiritual philosophy. Why are we Christian? How valid is my attitude toward war and military service? How fundamental to life is my religious belief? Is the C. O. position worth a year or two or more of payless service? Why are we here? What's wrong with war? What's wrong with defending yourself against aggression? These and many other problems ought to be resolved in the days that a young man spends in a C. P. S. camp.

Not the least among the assets accruing to young men who are privileged to serve in camp is the regular, routine order of the day which is of great disciplinary value. Many lives are aimless and purposeless. They move in careless, impetuous cycles. But, here in camp, life must move more or less in regular fashion and schedule. Many of us are together which calls for more understandings.

Many folks go through life without ever learning to live together in a congenial way. Strong personalities usually succeed in having others bend their way, and they get along simply because others acquiesce. We are levelled here in camp, the mighty with the meek. Part of our discipline is to learn to live together happily and helpfully. It is not easy to forfeit frequently our own way and desire. But for the good of all, we learn to bear and forbear.

Yes, there are benefits to C. P. S. Camp life. There are always blessings in any way God would choose for us. And, in this experience, we are sure the returns will be worthy of Him who knows the way we take.

SIMON MENNO KANAGY—AN APPRECIATION

By S. C. Yoder

With the passing of Simon Kanagy, beloved missionary, pastor, and man of prayer, the Mennonite Church has lost an able expounder of the Scripture and a loyal defender of the truth; his congregation has lost a loving counsellor and a faithful shepherd; and I have lost a helpful friend and an esteemed Christian brother.

Our acquaintance began at the Annual Meeting of the Mennonite Board of Missions and Charities held at North Lima, Ohio, in 1918, but it was during his connection with Hesston College as a teacher that I learned to know him more intimately and our early acquaintance grew into an intimate and brotherly fellowship that became more firm as the years went by. It was during his tenure on the faculty of Hesston College that I was privileged to serve on the staff as instructor during the Winter Bible School, and those six weeks of association with men of a virile Christian faith and wide experience did much for me in those formative days of my ministry.

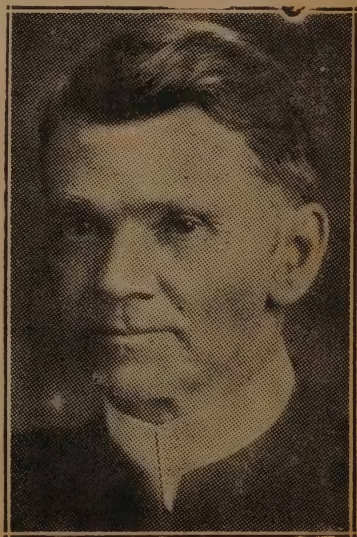

I was first attracted to Brother Kanagy through his prayers. It seemed that Christ, who was his all in all, had answered his petition and taught him to pray. His prayers were clear, specific, definite, and filled with adoration. In the pulpit he was an able preacher. Christ was the center of his thought and exposition. His sermons were scholarly, his language refined but simple, and his thought was always stimulating.

It was as pastor that he excelled. He was the kind sympathetic friend to every member, old and young. During a series of meetings which I held in his church about eight months previous to his death, I accompanied him on his home to home visits. He knew all the children by name and spoke a word of encouragement to each one. I thought then, "How fortunate is the congregation that has such a pastor." He was uncompromising in his attitude toward sin but he had learned to speak the "truth in love," and was able to reprove, rebuke, and exhort with all long-suffering and doctrine.

Brother Kanagy brought into his ministry a type of culture that was much needed in his day. He was one of the few men of his generation that had completed a course of study at a large university and received a degree and remained in the church. Though he was learned in the knowledge of his time, he remained the humble servant of Christ to whom he gave not only his training and his knowledge but also his life and his soul. It seemed that he had no aspiration for ecclesiastical authority or positions. He preferred to remain a preacher of the Gospel and a shepherd of the spiritual needs of men.

He was a man that loved the out of doors. The sunshine, the clouds, and the stars were his friends. He enjoyed living close to the soil and liked to work with living, growing things. The fields of grain, the trees and flowers on the hills of God, and the song of the birds held for him an irresistible charm to which he gave frequent expression in his conversation as well as in his teaching. When he was asked to give up his work at Hesston College and return to the city to assume charge of the Home Mission in Chicago, he hesitated for a time because he preferred the open life and freedom of the countryside. As a Christian, however, he had learned to put duty above personal desires; consequently he resigned his position, gave up his classes at Hesston College, and left the out of doors to become superintendent of the Home Mission in Chicago and pastor of the congregation that worshiped at that place. Here his ministry was a fruitful one—many members were reclaimed and many new ones were added. Assisted by his faithful companion, they gathered into the Church a goodly number of young people, some of whom are now found in responsible positions in the Church. In 1932 physical conditions in the family made it necessary for him to retire from the superintendency at the Mission and he accepted an invitation from the Wanner Church near Blair, Ontario, to become its pastor. This position he held until his death. During his pastorate at the Wanner Church a beautiful new building was erected, the congregation was revived and grew in numbers as well as in consecration and power.

While Brother Kanagy never aspired to positions in the Church, he, nevertheless, served in a number of important offices. For years he was a member of the Mission Board and also of the Mennonite Board of Education. He served as secretary of the latter board for a number of years. It was during this time that I came to the presidency of Goshen College and Brother Kanagy's position on the Board was especially acceptable and helpful to me.

He was one of those men that grew old in years but remained youthful in spirit. How easy it is to forget what energetic, inexperienced youth is like! But Brother Kanagy remembered his years and used all his rich experience to guide others into paths of peace and usefulness.

Now his work is done. He sleeps under the stars of the blue Canadian sky he loved so well, hard by the church to which he gave his last strength. We will sing and pray together no more until the morning of the resurrection is past. But his ministry lives on. No doubt there are numbers—some perhaps in the pulpit—who received their inspiration from the Word as he preached it, or from hours of fellowship in prayer in the quietness of his study when problems of the soul were settled at the Throne of Grace.

John Horsch was born December 18, 1867, at Giebelstadt, Bavaria, Germany, and died at his home in Scottsdale, Pa., on Tuesday morning, October 7, 1941, after a lingering illness, at the age of seventy-three years, nine months and twenty days. He was born the son of Bishop Jacob Horsch of Giebelstadt. His Grandfather Horsch had also been a minister and bishop in the Mennonite Church. His mother was Barbara Landes Horsch.

His father moved to Gelchsheim, Bavaria, in 1871, but continued to serve the congregation at Giebelstadt. John attended public school at Gelchsheim from 1874 to 1882. From 1882 to 1884 he assisted his father on the farm. From 1884 to 1886 he attended the Bavarian State Agricultural School and graduated from that institution.

Early in life he took a great interest in the history of the Mennonite Church. At the age of fifteen he learned of Dr. Ludwig Keller, a noted Anabaptist historian at Münster, and immediately began a correspondence with Dr. Keller on historical matters which continued for more than five years. Much of his thorough knowledge of the details of the history of the Anabaptists was acquired by intensive study far into the night after the day's work on the farm was completed.

His thorough belief in the Mennonite doctrine of nonresistance led him to leave his home in Germany and come to this country rather than to take up compulsory military training. He crossed the ocean on a Dutch ship, spent his twentieth birthday at sea, and landed in New York, January 3, 1888.

At his parental home he had become acquainted with the "Herold der Wahrheit," which was published at Elkhart, Indiana, by the Mennonite Publishing Company. He accordingly decided to go there to try to find work at that publishing house under John F. Funk. However, Funk had no opening for him early in 1888, and so he went to Halstead, Kansas, where his cousin, also named John Horsch, was employed on a farm. During that winter he attended the Indian Mission School at Halstead and learned the English language. Since his ambition was to get into Christian publication work, he kept in touch with Bro. Funk at Elkhart and in May, 1888, the latter asked him to come back to Elkhart to work as assistant editor and German proof-reader at the publishing house, which he did. He joined the Mennonite Church at Elkhart shortly thereafter, transferring from the Giebelstadt (Germany) Mennonite Church, where he had been baptized in 1882 at the age of fifteen.

During the years 1888 to 1892 he attended various colleges but worked at the publishing house at Elkhart during the summer months. He continued his editorial work with the "Herold der Wahrheit" for some time.

On September 26, 1893, at Elkhart, Indiana, he married Christine Funk of Schloss Neipperg, Württemberg, Germany. John F. Funk officiated at the ceremony. To this union were born four children: Elizabeth, Walter, Mennon, and Paul. His passing is the first break in this family circle.

Early in 1908 M. S. Steiner visited Bro. Horsch and as a result of this visit he was invited by Aaron Loucks to join the editorial staff at the newly established Mennonite Publishing House at Scottdale. This offer was gladly accepted, and in May 1908, he started his work on the German publications there. He remained in the active employ of the Publishing House until the spring of 1940, when the pressure of his active life became too great and made it necessary to relinquish some of his work just at the time when he was completing the book on European Mennonite Church History, the writing of which had been assigned to him by the Mennonite General Conference.

John Horsch was considered the best authority in the Mennonite Church on various phases of our church history. In Elkhart he built up, before 1895, what at that time was the most complete library on Mennonite History in America. When he came to Scottdale, the Publishing House management authorized him to continue his library work along with his other duties, and he assembled and catalogued at Scottdale a very important and extensive library of Mennonite History, the largest and richest in source material in America, consisting of about 1800 volumes.

Beginning with 1890 he entered upon a career of writing, in the course of which he wrote many books and pamphlets, some of which are: "Geschichte der Mennoniten-Gemeinden"; "The Mennonites, Their History, Faith, and Practice" (two editions); "A Short History of Christianity"; "Menno Simons, His Life, Labors, and Teachings"; "Infant Baptism, Its Origin Among Protestants and Arguments Advanced For It"; "The Higher Criticism and The New Theology"; "Die Biblische Lehre von der Wehrlosigkeit"; "The Mennonite Church and Modernism"; "The Principle of Non-resistance as Held by the Mennonite Church" (two editions); "Modern Religious Liberalism"; "The Destructiveness and Irrationality of the New Theology" (three editions); "The Failure of Modernism"; "Worldly Conformity in Dress" (two editions); "The Hutterian Brethren, A Story of Martyrdom and Loyalty"; "Symposium on War"; "The Background and Heritage of the Mennonite Church"; "War and the Christian Conscience" (two editions); "Is Dr. Kuehler's Conception of Early Dutch Anabaptism Historically Sound?" Besides these he wrote a great many articles in both English and German which have been historical and "in defense of the Faith," and which appeared in many and varied periodicals.

Bro. Horsch was a member of the Historical Committee of General Conference from its establishment in 1911 until his death. He also served on the Church Polity Committee and the Advisory Hymns Committee of General Conference.

As a theologian and church historian, Bro. Horsch has rendered inestimable service to the cause of Christ. —Gospel Herald.

UNAFFILIATED MENNONITE CONGREGATIONS

The following is a list of ministers of various bodies of Mennonites who adhere to the tenets of the Confession of Faith adopted by the Mennonites at Dordrecht in 1632, but have not affiliated themselves with any of the organized conferences. If we are privileged to prepare future issues of this work, we shall be glad to add to this list as we secure information enabling us to do so.

We Are Better Prepared to Face the Future By Knowing the Past

Four Valuable Books on Different Phases of Mennonite History by Mennonite Authors

Fifty Years in the Mennonite Church

1890-1940

By DANIEL KAUFFMAN

The past fifty years include an important period in the history of our Church. Brother Kauffman, a member of the Mennonite Church for over fifty years, moderator of the first General Conference at the age of thirty-three, a leader in church-wide activity ever since, and editor of the Gospel Herald since its origin, gives to us in his new book the benefit of his keen observation. Through his eyes we see the development of Sunday Schools, evangelistic meetings, General Conference, missions, church schools, and the many other activities of our Church.

92 pages, cloth binding with attractive gold jacket.

Price 60c

Menno Simons' Life and Writings

By HAROLD S. BENDER and JOHN HORSCH

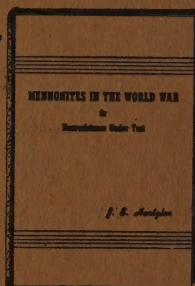

No longer is it necessary to read large volumes to get a knowledge of the life and thought of the great organizer of our Church. Through the labors of two of our historians a smaller book has been prepared giving an interesting biography of the life of Menno Simons and a large selection of his writings carefully translated from the Dutch. 112 pp., paper cover. 35c

Mennonites in the World War

By J. S. HARTZLER

The experiences of our boys during the World War in the regular military camps and the observations of our church leaders in working with military officials have taught us some valuable lessons. The stories and personal testimonies of the trials and sufferings inflicted upon our boys as recorded in this book will be of much help to conscientious Christians today. 246 pages, cloth binding.

Price $1.00

Glimpses of Mennonite History

By JOHN C. WENGER

How did the Mennonite Church originate? Who were the men connected with its development? What did they believe? What sufferings did the Anabaptist people endure for their faith? These and many other questions this recent book will answer. Brother Wenger as a careful historian spent much time in Europe gathering information from the countries where the early Mennonites lived. 126 pages. Cloth binding. Price 75c
